

2021 Award Nomination Form

Email this completed nomination form to: presidents@niaaeyc.org ATTN: niaaeyc awards

Please select the award you are nominating for:

Community Service Award: This award is given to an individual who has made outstanding contributions to the Fairbanks community through their work with or on behalf of young children and their families.

Administrative Recognition Award: An individual working in an administrative or support position (directors, supervisors, curriculum or family specialist, home visitor, cook, bus driver or attendant) is eligible for this award. The nominee must have worked in this position for a minimum of one year.

Infant & Toddler Teacher Award: This award is given to an early education professional working with infants & toddlers. Nominee must work directly in a classroom with children: birth to three years old, and have worked in the position for a minimum of one year to qualify for this award. He/she must have completed the training required by licensing.

Preschool Teacher Award: This award is given to an early education professional working in a preschool setting. Nominee must work directly in a classroom with children: three to five years old, and have worked in the position for a minimum of one year to qualify for this award. He/she must have completed the training required by licensing.

School Age Teacher Award: This award is given to an early education professional working in a school-age setting. Nominee must work directly in a classroom with children: five to eight years old, and have worked in the position for a minimum of one year to qualify for this award. He/she must have completed the training required by licensing.

Home Provider Recognition Award: This award is given to an early education professional working in a home-based site. The nominee must work directly with children and have worked in the position for a minimum of one year to qualify for this award. He/she must have completed the training required by licensing.

Unsung Hero Award: Our Unsung Hero is a teacher, who throughout their career has never left the classroom or home. This Hero continues to work with and inspire children every day. Their commitment to children and families is a shining example for those that have the honor to see them in action. Their continued dedication, whether in the classroom or home is what all Early Learning and Care professionals should strive to attain. This Hero would never ask for recognition and because of that deserves it even more.

President's Award: The nominee for this award is someone that will be considered by the President for selection who has demonstrated or aided others to achieve positive outcomes for children and families in our community, state, or nation.

Northern Interior Alaska Association for the Education of Young Children

An Affiliate of naeyc

Red Wagon Award: The nominee for this award is someone who has been or is currently active in advocacy for children and families. Typically, this person has demonstrated an enduring passion for family and child issues that affect the early childhood community locally, statewide, and/or nationally.

Name of Nominated Individual: _____

Program: _____ Position/Job title: _____

Years worked in program: _____ Training hours in past year (if known): _____

Years in the field: _____ Alaska SEED Level (if known): _____

Your Name: _____ Date: _____

Phone Number: _____ Email: _____

Why I am nominating this person: